Exercise (Unix or Windows)

- Write a version of the shell command tail
  - see man page
  - implement the -n flag or
- Recursive ls. Standard ls supports the -R option. This option lists the contents of a directory and the contents of all directories below it.Modify ls2.c to support the -R option. Windows program will need to use GetFileAttributes.

Exercise

Recursive ls. Standard ls supports the -R option. This option lists the contents of a directory and the contents of all directories below it. Modify ls2.c to support the -R option. Windows program will need to use GetFileAttributes.